A vivid flash of lightning followed by a loud crash and then a terrific peal of thunder brought many from the store rooms on Main street a few minutes before 12 o'clock. The downpour was then the heaviest and

the vivid flashes of fire fell from two heavily wire laden telephone, telegraph and electric light poles, one in front of the Smith house, which carries a transformer and the other at the corner of Meadow alley and Main

The storm knocked hundreds of telephones out of commission and many received severe jolts who were talking over the wires at the time. Linemen and operators began ascertaining the damage as quickly as possible after the storm and the testing stations were all busy. The Tri-State reported hundreds of telephones out of service, while the Bell had an equal amount

After the storm it was discovered that there is nothing Benevolent left of the B. P. O. E. in Connellsville. At least so the electric sign on the south east corner of the top of the clubhouse house was transformed by the storm, a bolt of lightning which struck there, knocking the electrical letter "B" clear off the sign, and bringing the letter "P" down out of line several inches. Some members who were in the clubhouse at the time the lightning struck were shocked more or less and parred by the bolt.

Shelter was quickly sought by all those who were out and could avail themselves of any covering. People who were driving were almost unable to control their horses, the animals becoming agitated by the flashes of

People whose nerves are alive to electrical storms spent a very uncomfortable time during the storm and ex-

those who are not usually shaken by electrical disturbances were more or less affected by the flashes that followed each other closely.

Needle in Her Hand.
Mrs. J. B. Winters of Somerset has the misfortune to run a needle into her hand several days ago, causing a very painful wound. The needle was driven through the fleshy part of his hand, and for a while it was feared that blood poisoning would set in. Her condition was alarming on Monday, but it has greatly improved.

BANANA SIGN OF BLACK HAND.

Sluths Ferret Out Workings
of Murderous Society

WHICH WAS WELL ORGANIZED

Arrests of Suspects in Ohio Cities Uncovers Extensive Operations of Society of the Banana. Formed For Purposes of Extortion and Murder.

Cincinnati, June 10.—Revelations of extortion, plotting and murder by the Blackhand as uncovered by the postoffice inspectors from the Cincinnati
office show conclusively that the gang
in Columbus, Marion, Denison and Bellefontaine and other Ohio towns
was organized along the same lines as the old Mafia but with a better system for concealing their movements.

It is now known that the Ohio
Blackhand, or the Society of the Banana, as its members style themselves,
had a branch in Pittsburgh and one in Chicago and a line that extended to South Dakota. Regular meetings were held and the money obtained by extor-
sion was distributed to various divisions in this country and sent to relatives in Italy for safekeeping.

"We have found what I believe to be certain proof that the Blackhand outrages, at least in the middle west, including Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Chicago, Columbus and other western cities, were committed by a well-organized society with grips and passwords, and that they are not simply sporadic acts of individual crime,"
said Chief Postoffice Inspector Holmes.

"We have letters of the same hand-
writing and on the same watermarked
paper, with Blackhand emblems used
with the same cryptographic style that were sent to victims in Cincinnati and Columbus from the Blackhand members in Pittsburgh, Chicago and Cleveland. For instance, if a victim were selected in Cincinnati, as was the case
in several instances, he would probably
receive the first threatening letter demanding money on pain of death by dynamite burning in the middle of the second letter would be written by the same person, but forwarded to the Blackhand in Pittsburgh, who would in turn mail it to the victim. If there were no response in the way of money,
then a third letter would come to the victim from the Chicago Blackhand.

In this way the organizers concealed its movements and it has taken inspector Oldfield and four other men
under the six months to run down the leaders.

"We have no evidence so far that the American Blackhand in the west is connected with the Italian organization that killed Lieutenant Petruccio
in Sicily. The money, thousands of dollars, sent by the Blackhand members to Italy, was simply their division of the spoils made at regular meetings and sent abroad to their innocent relatives and friends.

Nine arrests have been made thus far in Columbus, Marion, Denison and Bellefontaine, and others in Chicago
and Cincinnati are looking for Antonio
Lima, brother of Salvatore Lima,
who was arrested in Marion, Antonio
Lima, who eluded the officers at Sandusky,
is held to be one of the chief
singletons.

Court Declares Odd Will Illegal After Sixty-One Years.

Philadelphia, June 10.—Judge Mc-Pherson in the United States circuit court here has decided that the small
trust fund created by the late Professor Charles D. McCoy of Baltimore to pay off the debt of the state of Pennsylvania, his native state, violates the law against perpetuities and therefore
the court declared in favor of heirs,
who sued to recover the accumulated
fund, which now amounts to about $2,000.

The fund was created sixty-one
years ago by Professor McCoy. Judge McPherson holds that the project was
"elaborate and somewhat fantastic
scheme impossible of accomplishment."

ANOTHER MILL AT SCOTSDALE.

Old Meadow Will Have Five
Out of Eight Operating.

GALVANIZING PLANT RUNNING

Isaac Shupe Arrested Charged With Being in the Coughanour Robbery.
Two Other Members Alleged to Have Been in Gang Still at Large.

SCOTSDALE, June 10.—Another
mill will be started at the Old Meadow plant of the American Sheet & Tin Plate Company this evening, thus making five of the eight mills there
in full operation, after many months
of complete idleness. At the Scottdale
plant, No. 1 plant of the concern, the entire plant is going full, and this week the new galvanizing shop has been in operation for the first time,
the pickling of sheets going on to prepare them for use in the building
trucks for conductors, gutters and other such needs where a galvanized sheet cannot well be bent without
workings it at the point of bending, particularly where there are
abrupt turns made in the metal, inviting an earlier rusting at that line.
The sheets are made ready for galvanizing and shipped away to manufacturers of conductors and such articles, the latter bending the sheets
into the required shape, after which they galvanize them, making the structure the same the entire way
through.

It is the expectation, however,
that the actual galvanizing of the iron
will be commenced in Scottdale in the near future, and the entire plant
of six pots is in shape to be put in operation on very short notice. It is the intention to begin the running
with two out of the six pots. Galvanizing was formerly done at this mill,
where they had for years a plant containing two pots. This plant was replaced by the much larger one.

Gang Members Are Jailed.
Isaac Shupe, a young man of Eveson
and Scottdale, was arrested at the former place yesterday, charged with being a member of the gang that recently robbed the house of W. F.
Coughanour, of near Woodlands, on the Fayette county side, and the store of L. W. Hite of West Overton,
near here, and in Westmoreland county.
Shupe was arrested charged with being an accomplice of Miller in the Coughanour robbery. George Hite
and Charles Mitchell are also charged with being in the gang, but they have not been located. The Coughanour robbery took place at 11 o'clock in the day. Checks and notes aggregating several hundred dollars were taken at the two places along with some money and other valuables. The Grand Jury yesterday returned a true
bill against young Shupe.

Eisenhower Was Raised.
Prof. J. H. Eisenhower, a former popular and efficient teacher in the Scottdale schools, who went to Mc-Keenport to accept a similar position,
was re-elected teacher of physical education in those schools on Monday evening, with an increase from $1,000 to $1,200 a term.

Planning For New Front.
The Locks Hardware Company is
having carpenters busy at work remodeling the front of their store on Pittsburgh street. The center door will be removed and a large and more conspicuous entrance built with increased show window facilities.

The Saturday Game.
The Madison baseball team is scheduled to meet the Scottdale team
at Blawiepark on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. This is a live team
and much sport can be depended upon by the fans.

Park Theatricals Going.
W. G. Rotblatt, proprietor of Eden
Park west of town, to which the people of this place drive somewhat in the summer, has opened his local theatrical season at his resort, which
bids to be more popular than ever.

MRS. EDDY AND RIVAL WHO WANTS CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH PROBED

Mrs. Della M. Gilbert, long an ardent worker in the Christian Science faith and regarded in some quarters as the possible successor to Mrs.
Mary Baker G. Eddy as leader, has issued a stirring statement and appeal to Christian Scientists to join her in an investigation of the control of the mother church and a reorganization of it. Mrs. Gilbert boldly states that "Mrs. Eddy is either dead or a helpless, mindless puppet in the hands of conscienceless men." She tells of a visit to the Brookline home of Mrs.
Eddy and fruitless efforts to see the aged leader and founder of the faith.
Her statement has caused widespread discussion among adherents of Christian Science and resulted in a reply from Alfred Farlow, head of the Christian Science publication committee, in which Mrs. Gilbert's motives are impugned.

Pennsylvania being held by that society.

The State Conference of the Sunday
Schools of the Brethren Church convened here yesterday. There were accordingly 100 ministers, besides a number
of delegates from all parts of the State
in attendance. H. H. Cook delivered the address of welcome and the same
was responded to by Rev. W. L. Spinoza, D. D., of Conowingo, Md. C. C. Republic of Johnstown, and others. In his address
the speaker, covering the work of the past year thoroughly stating that of
the 31 conferences held by the society,
foreigners had been favored five times,
Meyersdale three times, and Connellsville three times. W. A. Harmon of Allentown was not able to be present to deliver his address on the subject,
"Advancement We Have Made During the Past Year." In this event the gap
was filled in by short addresses delivered by Revs. Beachie, Jones, Devlin, Wolmer, Meyers, and others, as to the progress of the work during the past year. William Replage spoke on "What Have Teachers Training and the Adult Bible Class Movement Done for
Your School?" An address by Rev.
David Flora upon the subject, "Personal Improvement: Are You Most Anxious?" and an address on "The Value of Organization and Definite Plans in the Sunday School," by Rev.
George H. Jones, closed the morning session. At the session Tuesday evening, following a song service and devotional exercises, conducted by J. F.
Kontz of Pittsburgh, Rev. A. D. Gungor,
editor of the Brethren Evangelist, the official organ of the church, published
at Ashland, O., discussed the subject,
"The Precious Opportunity of the Teacher." Following the discussion of the topic, "Dunper Connection indispensable to the Largest Usefulness
of the Sunday School," by Rev. W. S.
Bohl of Johnstown, the conference adjourning until Thursday morning. The conference began Wednesday morning with a song service and devotional
exercises conducted by Rev. J. B. Ray of Martinsburg. D. F. Eikenberry of Allentown, H. Coughanour of Philadelphia, and Rev. J. L. Bowman of Pittsburgh, discussed the topic, "The Importance of the Sunday School." Rev.
A. B. Truxal, D.D., pastor of Amity Reformed Church of this place, to whom
the committee of the conference were extended, and J. B. Hampl and A.

THE IMPUDENCE OF UNIONTOWN JOURNALISM.

The Uniontown Herald, with characteristic impudence, thinks that Con-
nelville people should come to Union-
town and help make its Independence Day celebration a success, instead of holding one of our own here
at humble Mud Island.

If we are not mistaken, the plans
for the Connelville celebration were under way before Uniontown thought of having one. Connelville people don't want to be ungrateful to their Uniontown brethren, and under ordinary circumstances and with proper notice and politeness on the part of our neighbors, they might have stood aside and permitted Uniontown to have the big day in the county, and
even joined in making it so.

But the day in Connelville this year will have a special significance.
It will be made the occasion of the celebration, not only of the merger
of the Thirteen Colonies as the United States, but also of the merger of
the boroughs of Connelville and
New Haven into a Greater Connelville, greater than Uniontown we
truly believe.

We are accused of believing in mergers. We do believe in them if they are properly constructed for proper purposes, first among these
being the protection of their constituent interests. This was the chief end and aim of the first American Colonization which we call American Independence, and which we celebrate with so much enthusiasm each
recurring 4th of July, and on the 5th,
if necessary.

Under the circumstances, if the Uniontown press would practice the generous spirit of reciprocity they
preach, they would not have said,
"Let's have a bigger celebration than Mud Island," but "Let's join with Connelville in congratulations and
good wishes."

Uniontown is a good town, and it
has many good people, but it is cursed with some editors of jealous disposition and narrow minds.

BIGGER AND BETTER THAN THE INSTITUTE.

The coming Fayette County Sunday School Convention at Connelville
will be a bigger thing for the town
than any Teachers' Institute could possibly be, and Connelville will show the delegates the biggest and best town in Fayette county, without the aid or consent of the Court House
village.

Connelville never does things by halves. The local committees are preparing a program for the visitors
which will surpass anything they have ever seen before and which will convince them of the large hospitality of a large town.

The Sunday School Convention will
be bigger than any old Institute, and better, too.

PENNSYLVANIA'S GREATEST EDITOR GONE.

In the death of Alexander Kelley Mc-Clure, there passes from the stage of action one of the truly great editors
and public men of Pennsylvania.

Born in 1828, on a farm in Perry
county, educated largely in the school
of country journalism, he became a leader of men by the sheer force of
a self-cultured mind and a masterful intellect.

His presence was commanding, but
his nature was genial, his eloquence
was fascinating, but his logic convincing; his language was forceful, and it never lacked for the right word in the right place.

As a politician, he was dominating;
as a statesman, he was able; as an
editor, he was brilliant, persuasive,
powerful.

He was a product of Americanism
in its highest and best sense, a living embodiment of the ability and win-
dom of "a government by the people."

Himself a country journalist, he
never failed to recognize the ability of country journalists wherever he found it, and he found it often and in obscure places. He established the model city newspaper of his time, if
not of all times; but he never made

the mistake of assuming that editorial
ability grew and flourished only in the urban life.

The Philadelphia Times, under his management, sparkled with the wit
and wisdom of the country editors.
His big and broad nature found delight in exploiting the good work of others, no matter how humble.

For this reason, among others, the country press of Pennsylvania honored
him in life above all other editors,
and in death the country editors lay
a laurel crown upon his grave.

The would-be Official Organ says
we "value a disturbance," when we discuss the law concerning ward representation in the Town Council and the School Board. The limited knowledge of The News will perhaps always preserve it from making such disturbances, but it has been known to raise
greater disturbances through its ignorance. The Courier has no desire to raise any disturbances, but feels it a duty to discuss public matters for public enlightenment. It congratulates itself upon the fact that it has no further responsibility.

The creditors of a Fairchance land-

It may be in some cases, but we may be excused for doubting that it is so
in the Fairchance case.

A Car Load 60,000 Rolls of Wall Paper Just Received

We made a deal with the Pittsburg Wall Paper Co., of New Brighton, Pa., for a carload of Wall Paper direct from their factory.
It is now in our store and we bought it low enough to furnish Wall Paper for your house at wholesale prices. To those who have papering to do, this is a rare chance to buy high grade goods at low prices. This paper was purchased for spot cash. The factory needed the money and we got the paper. We got it at a price that would make the little stores look sick, and we are going to sell it at prices that will make those who have papering to do look pleasant.
Come in and see what you can buy for a little money. Bring the size of your room, for you will be pleased before leaving. This is no advertising story but solid facts. The paper is here and ready for your inspection. We have money enough in spite of hard times to buy bargains when we see them, and we have confidence enough to buy large quantities and nerve enough to make low prices, which will make customers for us.

June Business.

We want to increase this business during the month of June.
Want to do a good bit more than in the same month last year. Have a right to expect this increased business because of the goods we have here and the prices at which they are marked. If you'll pay
this store a visit and become acquainted with these goods and the prices we know that you will do
a fair share of your June buying at this store.

CHILDREN'S DRESSES.
White and colors, sizes 2 to 12
years, and priced from 50c up to $5, $6 and $7. Made and designed by people who know how to make children's dresses. How to put in the little extra touches that make them so different from the ordinary touches. Every bit of material is washed and tested as to
being fast color before it is made up. Even the 50c dresses are made of Bates Gingham. In the $5, $6 and $7 sizes several are made with skirt and jacket of colored gingham and percale and white waist attached. Priced at $5, $6 and $7. A better assortment of dresses than we have
have to show for some time.

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR.
Garments made of best quality
and cambric neatly trimmed with lace and embroidery. Made in regular sizes and well made. Starting in prices at 15c for the little drawers up to 75c and $1 and $1.25 for the larger sizes in shirts
and drawers. Call special attention to the making and the material.

PARASOLS.
Parasol weather now and you'll want a parasol surely. Prices start at 50c for the children's and from
that on up to $5 and $6 and $8.
More to show and more styles
around $3.50 and $5 but there's a plenty at all prices and parasols
that will please.

BARGAIN SUITS
Going away on a summer trip?
You'll need a jacket suit. Some here now we are willing to sell for $10. Some at $15, and some at $20. Prices were $20, $30, $35, and $40. Don't put it off until you are about ready to start. Not as many
to select from than as now, and you'll not buy suits like these any cheaper no matter how long you wait.

VUDOR
PORCH SHADES.
Porch comfort and you know
how much of your time you spend on your porch now. And a Vudor
shade means porch comfort this year and next year and as many years as you take reasonable care
of it. Prices $2.25, $3.00, $4.00
and $5.50 for widths 4, 6, 8, and 10
feet; colors, dark green, light
green and mottled brown and green. All sizes in each color now.

BARGAIN TABLES.
Something new on the bargain
tables every day. Worth a visit at any time. From table has a lot of children's dresses that were used in the window, slightly sold
and for that reason the prices
are just half what they were originally.

REMNANTS.
Lots of remnants these days,
short lengths of dress goods and
silks and wash goods at prices
that are tempting. Every short length goes to these tables as soon as it is discovered. You'll find bargains here worth buying more perhaps just now than for some time.

SEMBOWER IS MADE RECEIVER.

Will Conduct the People's Tribune Pending Settlement of Affairs.

BOND IN SUM OF $10,000

Given Binding Instructions Regarding
the Payment of Bills—Constable Prosecutes Brewing Company For Selling to Minors.

UNIONTOWN, June 10.—The court appointed Jasper T. Sembower temporary receiver for the Peoples Tribune Company in pursuance to the developments in the suit brought by Sembower against the company and its directors. Bond in the sum of $10,000 must be filed before he assumes his duties and an inventory shall be filed with the court in ten days.

The receiver is instructed to continue the business, but to pay no adverse accounts arising prior to the date of this decree unless by special order of the court.

District Attorney Davis W. Henderson was instructed to prepare a bill of indictment to be laid before the Grand Jury, charging the Johnson Brewing Company of New Salem, with violations of the liquor laws. The indictment is based upon a return made by Constable William Hincoc of Meadville township, who stated that the brewing company has sold beer to ten minors. The indictment, as prepared, contains ten counts.

Attorneys McDonald & Gray filed another answer, and two demurrers in the action of the Carnegie Trust Company of New York, against St. Thomas Roman Catholic Church and Rev. Ignatius Ostaszewski. The answer covers the total for $2,065.33 and is made by Antoni Zwolinski, a member of the church committee, being similar to the answer filed a few days ago in the other case. The demurrers of Rev. Ostaszewski cover both cases and set up practically the same allegations, that no authority is shown whereby the note was issued and that the note was delivered to the Carnegie Trust Company in collusion with Kloran.

King Brothers, Uniontown feed store men, won their suit against John H. Clark. The jury agreed with in half an hour, awarding the plaintiffs $21.97. The claim was for 25 bushels of shelled corn which plaintiffs contended had been sold to Clark through his driver, John Walker. The date of the sale was fixed in October, 1907. The defense contended that he had settled with King Brothers in September, 1907, and instructed Walker not to buy any more corn. Walker testified that he had not bought any corn receiving and instructions. Plaintiff testified that Walker got 25 bushels of shelled corn, and that payment had not been made.

The following true bills were reported by the Grand Jury:

George H. Stillwagon, paternity; J. J. Orbach, larceny by bailee; David J. Berry, false pretense; John Shucko and Andy Sutrich, malicious injury to railroad; LeRoy C. Waggoner, paternity; adultery and abortion; John Shipley and Sarah Jane Shipley, disorderly house; Nathan Hotter and Louis Hotter, assault and battery and larceny; Louis Kuchert and Louis Kuchert, disorderly house; Andrew Frank, assault and battery; George Glass, paternity; Ed. Kuchert, mischief; James Shaw, assault and battery, etc.; Robert R. Crawford, desertion and non support; Ed. Clark, larceny.

Ignored—Simon Sumoy, desertion and non support, the prosecutor, May Sumoy, to pay costs; Charles Pitt, assault and battery, the prosecutor, Andy Kaper, to pay costs; John E. Jackson, assault and battery, the county to pay costs; Tony Luck, larceny, the prosecutor, J. S. Therman, to pay costs.

Only a Total of 1710 Polls and Very Little Interest Taken in the Results.

SOMERSET, Pa., June 8.—The returns of the primary election held on Saturday have all been placed in the hands of the Commissioners. The vote throughout the county was small and numbered only 1,710 votes. There was little interest manifested in the result of the election as there were no hard contests between any of the candidates. The following tabulation shows the result of the principal candidates on the Republican ticket:

MAY THROW ALL THE CHURCH GAMES OUT

Teams Have Played Ineligible Players And Protest Swamps
The President.

A meeting of the Church league was held in the Y. M. C. A. building last night for the purpose of electing a Vice President to succeed H. E. Gotchell. Robert Norris was nominated and unanimously elected. The financial end was then brought up and the report of the Treasurer showed that 120 tickets had been given to the league and that none had returned either tickets or money.

At several recent games nobody was on the game to take the tickets or money from spectators and it was decided to appoint one man from each team to attend to the gate on the night their respective teams play and also to appoint one from each team to advertise the games.

It was decided to let all children under ten years of age in free and to charge all adults the regular price of admission unless in uniform.

The eligibility rules were also emphasized by President Clarke as it was found that nearly every team was playing men not eligible. Some games have been protested on this account and it may be that all the games played up to this date will be thrown out.

CONNELLSVILLE WILL SEND BIG DELEGATION

Entire Allotment of 75 Seats For the Forbes Field Opening Day Has Been Taken Up.

Will Connelville be represented at the opening of Forbes Field in Pittsburgh when the Pirates and Cubs clash on June 30? The Corker rosters will be there in force. Already the 75 tickets which were allotted the Conner of the Corker Region have been exhausted and J. W. McClaren, who is looking after the distribution here, is sending for more.

Forbes Field is to be the finest baseball home in the world and the two best teams in the country will clash on opening day. It is a big attraction and the fans from here will travel towards Pittsburgh in force. It is probable that a special coach will carry the rosters to Pittsburgh.

AERO CLUB AND DAYTON MEDALS TO BE PRESENTED TO THE WRIGHTS

WASHINGTON, June 10.—The long deferred presentation of the gold medals to the Wright brothers on behalf of the Aero Club of America is scheduled to take place at the White House today. President Taft will make the presentation speech, and a large delegation of aeronautic experts will attend the ceremony and welcome the distinguished inventors. The Aero Club medals were designed by Victor Brenner and cost $1,000 each. On the occasion of the Dayton celebration in honor of the Wright brothers on June 17 they will receive the medals voted them by Congress and made at the United States mint in Philadelphia. These will be presented by Representative Cox. They also will receive medals from the citizens of Dayton.

President Taft to Make Presentation
This Afternoon.

Washington, June 10.—Today will be the place in the east room of the White House at 2:30 p. m. President Taft will make a short address and Representative Herbert Parsons of New York will briefly review the achievements of the brothers.

The Wrights arrived here at 8:40 o'clock this morning and were entertained at luncheon by the Aero club of Washington. Prominent statesmen, diplomats, scientists, aeronauts and army and navy officers were invited to meet the Wrights at the luncheon.

Miss Catherine Wright accompanied her brothers and the entire party will return to Dayton late in the day. The Wrights will consult with General James Allen, the chief signal officer, regarding the official trials of their aeroplane, which are scheduled to be completed by June 28. They will make no flight today as their machine has not yet been shipped to Washington.

Urges That More Haste Be Made With the Tariff Bill.

New York, June 10.—John W. Gates's party shot as he left for Europe on the Lusitania was a word of admonition to the legislators who are in charge of the task of tariff revision. "The quicker the job is done the better," he declared. "The whole country is waiting to have the work finished and any delay in Washington means a costly postponement of the prosperity wave which is bound to come as soon as settled tariff conditions give the business world a chance to move forward."

LESS COKE WAS MADE IN GEORGIA.

Heavy Decrease in Southern State's Output Shown
for Last Year.

CONVICTS USED IN THE MINES

Many Sections Show Curtailed Production of Coal As a Result of the Business Depression—What Several Western States Did.

From The Weekly Courier.—The total production of coal in Georgia in 1908 was 261,822 tons, having a spot value of $364,273. Few States suffered more acutely from the financial depression of 1908, so far as coal production is concerned, than Georgia, the output of the State decreasing from 362,401 tons in 1907 to 261,822 tons in 1908, a decline of 97,579 tons or 26.9 per cent. The value fell off from $439,856 to $364,273, a decrease of $75,583, or 17.1 per cent. The output in 1908 was less than in any year since 1900 and can be attributed almost entirely to the depression in the iron trade, which partly affected the production of high grade cokes and the manufacture of coke.

The quantity of coal made into coke decreased from 111,031 short tons in 1907 to 71,152 tons in 1908—almost exactly 50 per cent. Of the total decrease in the State's coal production in 1908, 71 per cent. was in the quantity of coal charged into the ovens for the manufacture of coke.

The number of men employed in the coal mines in Georgia in 1908 was 670, compared with 808 men for an average of 262 days in 1907 and 737 men for 279 days in 1906. The efficiency recorded for the laborers in the coal mines of Georgia was probably the same compared with that of other States, however, as a great number—considerably more than half—are convicts leased by the State to the mining companies. Most of the men worked nine hours a day, but the statistics of production show that the average output per man each day during 1908 was only 1.51 tons, compared with 1.71 in 1907 and 1.62 in 1906. The average production per man for the year was 395 tons, compared with 419 tons in 1907 and 450 tons in 1906. This low efficiency is explained by the fact that the convicts employed in the mines have had no experience as coal miners except during the periods of their incarceration. Where convicts are employed the operations are not subject to interference by labor troubles.

There are no undercutting machines in use in the mines of Georgia. At one plant washing machinery is employed and in 1908, 73,000 tons of coal were washed, yielding 71,152 tons of cleaned coal and 7,548 tons of refuse.

The total production of coal in California in 1908 was 18,755 short tons, having a spot value of $51,810. The coal mining industry of California has been adversely affected by the importation of foreign and better coals, brought largely by rail, by the increased production of petroleum and its use as fuel in manufacturing establishments. As a result of these conditions the production of coal in the State had decreased from over 170,000 tons in 1900 to 77,000 tons in 1906, to 77,500 tons in 1907, and to 77,500 tons in 1908. Up to the close of 1908 all the coal mined in the State had been of the lignite or subbituminous variety. During the last year, however, the development of the mines in Stone Canyon, Monterey county, has placed on the market a bituminous coal of a quality adapted to compete with the foreign coals brought into the San Francisco market, and it is believed that this will result, to some extent, in the rehabilitation of the coal mining industry of the State.

The total production of coal in Oregon in 1908 as shown by statistics collected by E. W. Parker, of the United States Geological Survey, was 85,559 short tons, having a spot value of $236,921.

All of the coal produced came from the Coos Bay field in Coos county, and the increased production in 1908 was due to an increased activity at the Beaver Hill mines. All of the Beaver Hill coal was washed, the operations yielding 70 per cent. of cleaned coal and 30 per cent. of refuse. The refuse, however, contains a sufficient quantity of combustible material to permit its use as fuel in the operation of the mines. The coal from the field is of lignite character.

Transportation is confined exclusively to Coos Bay and the Pacific Ocean, and the city of San Francisco is the principal market. The large amount of construction work involved in the rebuilding of San Francisco is the principal cause for the increased production of Oregon lignite. According to the estimates prepared by M. R. Campbell, of the Geological Survey, the coal-bearing formations of Oregon are limited to an area of 270 square miles, containing 1,000,000,000 short tons. Coal was first noted in the Coos Bay region in 1865.

ceding year, an increase is reported in the value of the product. The output in 1907 was 1,947,807 short tons, valued at $2,059,769, and the 1908 figures therefore show a decrease of 100,815 short tons, or 5.18 per cent in quantity, but an advance of $159,969, or 6.39 per cent. in value. The average price for ton rose from $1.52 in 1907 to $1.59 in 1908. This increase in value and advance in price in the face of the general financial depression can be accounted for only by the increased expense of mining due to a lessened productive capacity of the mine workers.

The areas in Utah known to contain workable beds of coal, estimated by M. R. Campbell, of the Geological Survey, to aggregate 13,130 square miles, and there are in addition 2,000 square miles of which little is known but which may contain workable beds of coal. The original contents of these fields are estimated by Mr. Campbell to have been 156,658,000,000 short tons of coal. The first production of coal in Utah was reported in 1870, when 1,800 tons of coal were mined. The output exceeded 1,000,000 tons for the first time in 1900 and reached its maximum of 1,947,807 tons in 1907.

The total production since mining began in 1870 to the close of 1908 has amounted to 59,557,374 tons. On the basis of one-half ton of coal wasted for every ton of coal mined and marketed, the exhaustion during this period has amounted approximately to 31,000,000 short tons, or 0.016 per cent of the original supply.

REJECT TAFT'S PROPOSAL.

Republicans Are Divided on Income Tax Question.

Washington, June 10.—After a conference at the White House between President Taft and Senator Aldrich it was stated that the Finance Committee will not consent to placing a 2 per cent tax upon the net earnings of corporations if the supporters of the income tax amendments would accept it and withdraw their proposition. This suggestion, it is declared, came from President Taft and was designed to prevent a split in the Republican party over the income tax feature. Mr. Aldrich communicated the plan to Senators Cummins and Borah, who are the leaders of the progressive Republicans who have favored the Cummins income tax amendment. These senators consulted with their colleagues and the plan was repudiated by them. Mr. Aldrich consulted also with Republican leaders who are opposed to the income tax idea and he had no better success with that faction than with the progressives.

By an order of the Senate the income tax proposition will come up today for a vote, but in view of the unsettled conditions a motion will be made to postpone action and the indications are that practically all of the Republicans will support the postponement.

FIGHT STEAM TRAWLERS

Fishermen of St. Pierre, Me., Resist Invasion of Fishing Grounds.

St. Pierre, Me., June 10.—Crushed to the necessity of protecting their hand-line fisheries, which give employment to 10,000 men, the fishermen here have formed an association for the purpose of taking action against the steam trawlers which are operating in the banks.

In their efforts to put an end to the extensive damage which, it is claimed, these trawlers have caused, the fishermen have entered into negotiations with the American and British fishermen operating on the banks for the merging of interests in the common battle against the invading steam trawlers.

RECORD AGAINST HIM

Pittsburgher Sentenced in New York to Two Years' Imprisonment.

New York, June 10.—Albion Young, of Pittsburgh, sentenced here to two years in prison for the theft of a racing cup from the window of a local bicycle firm.

Inspector Gough testified that Young, who goes under a number of aliases, had been kept under observation since his arrival on this side last year and he gave a record of his convictions, which include a train robbery at Wabash, Ind., in 1883; burglaries at Madison and elsewhere and grand larceny in Philadelphia.

MINERS BURIED ALIVE

Comrades Engaged in Desperate Effort to Save Them.

Pottsville, Pa., June 10.—By an extensive cave-in at the New Castle colliery two miners, Harry Williams and John McGuire, were entombed alive. It was thought at first a number of other men were buried in the fall, but rumblings from the entombed men show that only two were caught. There is possibility that they may be taken out alive.

VERY EXPENSIVE LUXURY FOR PEOPLE

Is the Method of Opposition Followed Out By
La Follette

AND HIS "STATESMEN"

Holding Up the Passage of the Tariff Measure While the Working People Are Made to Suffer and Prosperity Withheld.

Special to The Courier.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—The "progressive" statesmanship of the Senate has proven a highly expensive luxury. It would be impossible to estimate the trifling cost of maintaining the school of statesmen of which Mr. La Follette is the chief exemplar. In a recent speech in the Senate Mr. La Follette referred to the "exalted statesmanship" that had wasted four hours in the discussion of a proposed change in the Dingley law that might result in an additional cost of a few cents in the painting of a six-room house. The Pennsylvania Senator merely emphasized a condition with which the country gradually is becoming familiar. For many weeks the "progressive" statesmen will justify the demand of the labor and capital of the United States for the enactment of a tariff bill have conducted a hopeless and senseless filibuster. They have not charged a syllable of the measure prepared by the Finance Committee and they have no expectation of doing this. They frankly admit that the bill the Senate will pass is the Committee's bill. But removed by the appeal of the man who has no work for action that will provide it, La Follette and his followers persist in their reckless obstruction. It is no concern of theirs that the man without work in time is certain to be without bread.

The Dingley bill, which provided the most satisfactory tariff system this country has ever known, was constructed by the Finance Committee of which Mr. Aldrich was then, as he is now, chairman. It encouraged no filibuster in the Senate, but that Senate had no Cummines, La Follettes, Dufflers, Beveridges or Bristows. Its membership did not include one Chauncey Duffler to abuse the senatorial privilege of unlimited discussion for advertising for the next season's election. The bill it passed was not impeded by the clamor of the La Follette type of demagogues. It did not incur the blight of "progressive" statesmanship. A demand for "downward" revision is the cause of the obstructionists for delaying the tariff bill. They are mindful of the fact that the national platform does not pledge the Republican party to "downward" nor "upward" revision but to revision.

The progress of the Senate in relation to the corporation tax plan developed also that there is decided opposition to the income tax feature which was adopted by the house at the behest of President Taft and was stricken out of the bill by the senate committee on finance.

Miss Stewart Rejects Another Offer to Audit Hospital Books.

Mercer, Pa., June 10.—Miss Eleanor Stewart, former secretary and treasurer of the Mercer hospital and for two weeks confined in the Mercer jail for contempt of court, refused an audit of the hospital books by George J. Churchill, a traveling auditor from the auditor general's office, and declared her intention of having the books audited by a New York auditing company. Churchill was in Greenville and two friends of Miss Stewart, who were in the hope of arranging some method of getting her released. The proposition was to have Churchill audit the books in the jail under the supervision of the sheriff and in the presence of Miss Stewart, and should anything arise which they did not understand Miss Stewart's professor, Kyle W. Orr, should be called in and given a chance to explain it; that after the books were audited they should be sealed and sent to the auditor general's office without passing into the hands of the trustees.

The auditor agreed and the proposition was made to Miss Stewart, who was favorably impressed with it. Then appeared a third person, whose name is withheld, and Miss Stewart, after a conference with this person, refused the overture of her friends.

ROOSEVELT'S CHUM TO REPLACE WHITE, MINISTER TO FRANCE.

Robert Bacon, who is to succeed Henry White as Ambassador to France, was born in Massachusetts 19 years ago and was graduated from Harvard in the same class with Theodore Roosevelt. He joined the banking firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. and at one time was the firm's European representative. In 1905 he accepted the post of Assistant Secretary of State and was the close companion and friend of President Roosevelt until the end of his administration. Mr. Bacon became Secretary of State upon the retirement of Elihu Root and occupied the place in the cabinet until the appointment of Philander C. Knox.

THE HARDY CODFISH.

It Will Live For Hours Out of Its Native Element.

A man who had stopped at a stand in Fulton market to buy a fresh fish pointed his finger at a fish that pleased his fancy, being about two feet long and weighing about five pounds. "That looks like a nice fish to me," he said, whereupon the dealer picked the fish up to put it on the scale. The customer picked it up the fish began to wriggle, and the next moment it had slipped out of the dealer's grasp and fallen on the sidewalk. As the fish went down the customer turned to the stand and picked out another, which the dealer picked up, and this fish stayed quiet until it had been put on the scale, but the instant it touched it it began to hop vigorously and finally hopped itself out of the scale pan, to fall on the stand below.

Codfish these two lively and vigorous fish were, the cod being a fish that will live out of the water three or four hours, a good deal longer than most fish. At Fulton market live cod can almost always be found. The dealers keep their stock in fish cars in the East river, just across South street, and for retail trade bring over maybe fifty or a hundred pounds at a clip, enough to last half an hour or an hour, and when the stock runs low they bring over another lot, fresh out of the fish cut.

The cod, though a salt water fish, will live for hours in fresh water. An angler who goes occasionally to the fishing banks tells of carrying home a codfish caught in the afternoon and placing it in a tub with ice and it alive the next morning.—New York Sun.

TUOK NO CHANGES.

Young Bessemer Was Cautious as Well as Inventive.

The most trivial incidents have often originated the fortunes of our richest men. Take, for example, the fortunes made out of Bessemer steel. This genius, young Bessemer, had some idea of making steel out of iron, but a poor, newly married young man has no means of experimenting on a large scale. The story I must tell as I have heard it from an intimate friend of Bessemer and is a true tale. After Bessemer had in his small laboratory experimented with the metal and at last obtained the desired result by blowing air through melted iron he found in the bottom of the crucible a little lump of the famous steel. Now the question was how to make the discovery public. He put the lump of steel into his pocket and made his way to Nasmyth of steam hammer fame. Placing the metal on Nasmyth's desk, he told him that he had made this extraordinary discovery, which would revolutionize the whole metal world. Then came a little incident which shows what wonderful heads these Scotch characters possess. What do you think Nasmyth said to his excited inventor?

"Eh, mon, it's very risky to show your wonderful invention. The world is very dishonest."

"Right, Mr. Nasmyth. I just calculated whom I was coming to see, so with my last half crown I registered the invention on my way."—London Strand Magazine.

NEW DEATH DEALING RAPID FIRE GUN SOON TO BE TESTED BY THE U. S. ARMY

A new automatic rapid fire gun recently tested at Cleveland, O., and soon to have a further test by military experts of the Government, promises to revolutionize light field artillery. The weapon is known as the McLean-Lissak automatic gun and is made in three sizes—three pounder, being solid shot or bursting shell, 100 shots a minute, with a range of three and a half miles; one pounder, firing similar projectiles, 150 a minute, with a range of three miles, and 30 calibre, firing 350 shots a minute, with a range of two miles. The smaller and larger types of the gun are shown in the accompanying illustration. The three pounder, the largest automatic gun ever made, is mounted on an automobile truck. There is no recoil from the gun even when the brakes from the automobile are off. The smaller gun is mounted on a tripod and can be fired at an

Marie, Mich., June 10.—With all the weight of Lake Superior behind it, an ungoverned torrent of water rushes today through the $1,000,000 Canadian canal built to carry vessels around the impassable rapids of the Sault Ste. Marie river. The entire fall of approximately twenty feet is concentrated in the lock, which was wrecked when the steamer Perry G. Walker of the Great Lakes fleet rammed her bow through the lower gate. The canal engineer within its walls is a tremendous spectacle, including two waterfalls and a giant whirlpool.

The upper gates were open when the Walker crashed open the lower gates and the tremendous power of the rapids was given instant play. The steamer Aseimbola, a big Canadian Pacific passenger liner, moored within the lock chamber, was torn away from her moorings, tilting on the crest of the flood, she jammed the Walker from her path, the Aseimbola's port bow ripping a hole in the Walker's side. The liner's engine crew put on full steam ahead in a desperate endeavor to give the big vessel sternway, and with her wheelmen struggling to overcome the swirling currents the Aseimbola's cargo shifted and this gave her a considerable list and several plates on her port side forward of amidships were loosened.

The Walker was whirled around several times and finally landed on a shoal out of the channel. It is said she is undamaged below the waterline. The ore-laden steamer Crescent City of the Pittsburgh Steamship company, which was just entering the locks from Lake Superior when the accident occurred, was swept down stream like a feather. She overtook the Aseimbola and struck the latter two glancing blows after having a great hole torn in her side as she swept past the broken lower gate. Tugs caught her and towed her to the American side, where she sank. Both the upper gates of the lock and one lower gate were wrecked from their moorings. The other lower gate still hangs to its fastenings twisted and broken.

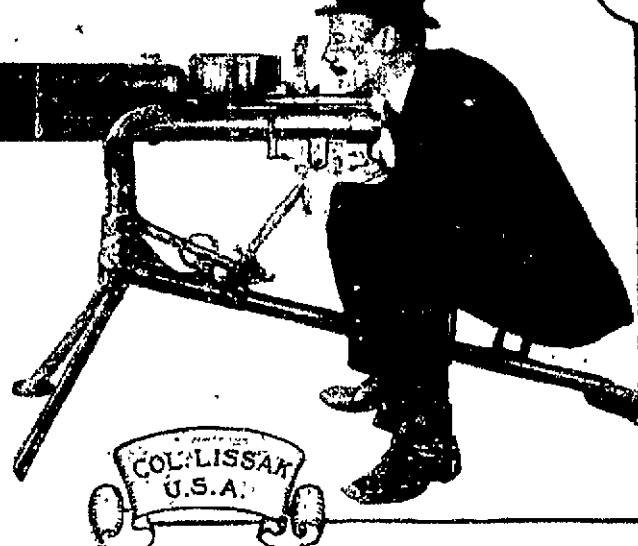

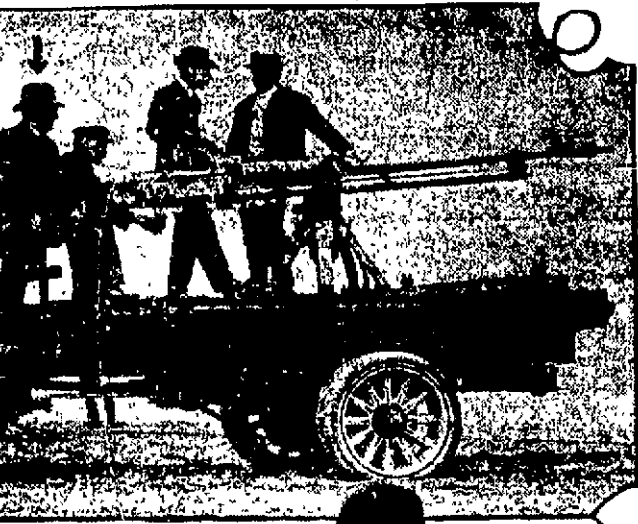

The loss to the Canadian government will probably reach $250,000 and the damage to the Crescent City is estimated at $100,000. The damage to the steamers Walker and Aseimbola was comparatively light.

It is believed that the American locks here are capable of carrying all the traffic under the present conditions of the shipping business.

Earthquake Kills 230 Persons.

Pudang, Sumatra, June 10.—The town of Kuntih, 135 miles southeast of Padang, was devastated by an earthquake the night of June 3-4. Two hundred and thirty persons were killed. The shock was accompanied by a tidal wave which swept away the native boats, with a range of three miles, and 30 calibre, firing 350 shots a minute, with a range of two miles. The smaller and larger types of the gun are shown in the accompanying illustration. The three pounder, the largest automatic gun ever made, is mounted on an automobile truck. There is no recoil from the gun even when the brakes from the automobile are off. The smaller gun is mounted on a tripod and can be fired at an

DRY'S DEFEATED.

Youngstown Votes Overwhelmingly to Retain Saloons.

Youngstown, O., June 10.—Anti-saloon forces in Ohio suffered a bitter defeat when Youngstown, with 10,000 inhabitants, and the remainder of Mahoning county voted in special election to retain the saloons.

The vote in the eighty-four city and county precincts was, Wet, 11,123; dry, 9,261. In the county, where much was expected by the anti-saloon forces, only 705 majority was secured. Only one ward in the city, the Fourth, gave a dry majority. It went anti-saloon by fifty-nine votes.

Ten thousand persons picked themselves to the public square last night and cheered enthusiastically the victory of the wet vote. The principal streets were made unsafe by processions of automobiles running at high speed and filled with yelling men. Chief of Police McElwain ordered that all saloons be kept closed until this morning and is keeping his entire force of eighty men on duty to prevent disorder.

STRIKEBREAKERS MOBBED

Riot Results at Wellston, O., When Imported Workers Arrive.

Wellston, O., June 10.—A riot occurred here between men brought from Cincinnati and striking employees of the Peck Williamson company, manufacturers of heating and ventilating apparatus.

Forty non-union men were attacked by strike sympathizers as soon as the outsiders stepped from a train to enter the factory. Stones and clubs were used. Several of the non-union men were cut and one was taken to a hospital with a fractured skull. The strikebreakers finally took to the woods, leaving their baggage scattered along the road. They were not pursued, but pickets were placed around the foundry to intercept any of them that attempted to enter.

The strike is for higher wages and recognition of the union.

NEW STAMP MUST GO

Green Special Delivery Causes Confusion and Delay of Mail.

Washington, June 10.—As a matter of necessity Postmaster General Hitchcock has decided to discontinue the new green special delivery stamp and return to the familiar blue stamp showing a special delivery messenger boy mounted on a bicycle.

In the great rush with which the mails must be handled many letters bearing the new stamp have escaped treatment as special delivery matter because of its similarity in size and color to the one-cent stamp.

Double Murderer Sentenced to Death.

Johnstown, Pa., June 10.—Thomas W. Johns, convicted of murdering his wife and the latter's aunt, Mrs. Charles Coughlin, was sentenced to death by Judge O'Connor at Ebensburg. The murders were committed in Conemaugh Sept. 21, 1908.

DEATH SPURTS FROM FURNACE.

Six Killed and Several Fatally Burned at Martin's Ferry, Ohio.

THEY ARE MOSTLY FOREIGNERS

Skip Occurs in Furnace of Wheeling Steel & Iron Company As Men Are Gathered About Preparing to Make a Cast.

Wheeling, W. Va., June 10.—Six died and thirteen injured, three or more of whom may not recover, took the toll of disaster from the Martin's Ferry, O., furnace of the Wheeling Steel and Iron company. A slip in the furnace occurred shortly after 8 o'clock, just as the night shift was making ready to drill in for the 9 o'clock cast. With the rush of a Niagara and the roar of a hundred-ton gun, great masses of molten iron spouted from the furnace and swept down upon the fifty or more men surrounding the opening.

Twenty or more were caught and six are known to have perished and their bodies literally burned to a crisp. Eight to fourteen received horrible injuries, some with arms burned off, others losing legs, and all burned from head to foot. The injured were taken from the vortex and removed to the Martin's Ferry hospital, where it is believed that at least three and possibly others will die within a few hours.

The dead and injured are Hungarians. The names of many may never be known.

Manager Fred Zimmerman performed deeds of valor in the work of rescue. He personally saved the lives of several men and himself received serious burns all over the body. As one man was swept past him in the river of molten iron he reached forth and grasped the poor fellow's arm, which parted from the body and the victim sank to a fiery death.

Superintendent Zimmerman said he believed two of the dead were Mike Miller and George Withers, both Austrians, though this is not certain as yet.

Dies Rather Than Recant.

Canal Dover, O., June 10.—Not wishing to keep the promise made his mother on her deathbed that he would return to the Amish church, Levi Yoder, age twenty-five, killed himself by hanging in the barn at his home near Sugar Creek. Yoder was formerly a member of the Amish sect, but renounced the faith two years ago. His mother died several months ago.

The Scrap Book

The Missing Ones.

This is one of the old stories told by Henry Clews of Travers, the New York stammering wit. Mr. Clews always insists that the average Wall street broker is the most honest of men.

"Travers," said Mr. Clews, "was once invited to be a guest at a yacht regatta. The waters of Newport harbor were covered with a beautiful squadron. Mr. Travers found that each yacht belonged to a banker or broker. He gazed blankly into the distance for a time and then inquired of a seafaring fellow who was the co-captain of the yacht."

"Drifting Souls," Ah, there be souls none understand. Like clouds, they cannot touch the land. Drive as they may, by field or town. Then we look west at this and frown. And we cry, "Poor!" and cry, "Toto hold Of faith and fashion gods of gold!"

Unanchored ships, they blow and blow, Sail to and fro and then so down In unknown seas that none shall know Without one ripple of remorse. Poor, drifting dreamers sailing by, They seem to quail live and die.

Call them not fools! The test of worth is not the boat, but the man who sails. There be goodest souls as shown That know not any better known. And oft of this the reason lies. They touch on fairer shores than this —Joachim Miller.

Woman's Keen Sense of Humor. A lady who was at the head of a suffrage organization attended a social function during the course of which there was presented to her a gentleman who seemed disposed to poke fun at the principles so dear to the lady and her following.

"All this goes to show, my dear young lady," said he, "that utterly you women lack a sense of humor."

"I perceive you since the general error in that respect," said the suffragette.

"Time women lack humor? Yes?" "Really, sir, you're most unobservant," continued the suffragette. "There is in every married woman's life at least one occasion when she evinces the keenest sense of humor."

"You astonish me!" exclaimed the man. "May I ask you to particularize?"

"Certainly. Does she not get by the 'love, honor and obey' part of the marriage ceremony without so much as a sulker?"

The Party He Belongs To. A matron of the most determined character was encountered by a young woman reporter who was sent out to interview leading citizens as to their politics.

"May I see Mr. —?" she asked of a stern looking woman who opened the door at one house.

"No, you can't," answered the matron decidedly.

"But I want to know what party he belongs to?" persisted the girl.

"The woman drew up her full figure. 'Well, take a good look at me,' she said. 'I'm the party he belongs to!'"

All the Trimmings. Mrs. Brown was young and pretty and innocent of household wisdom. She was also married but a month and just settled in her little villa outside London. A friend had sent her a present of a brace of pheasants and as she expected company the following evening she told the servant to keep the birds till the morrow and then cook them for dinner.

Early the next morning the girl came to her mistress and said, "Please, ma'am, do you like the birds' legs?"

"Like the birds' legs, Mary?" said Mrs. Brown. "Why, whatever do you mean?"

"Well, ma'am," said Mary, "some folks you know like the birds' tails." "Oh, they like the birds' tails?" said the mistress. "Why, of course, certainly Mary. Bring in both the eye and the tail."

A Surprise For Jim. A mission worker in New Orleans was visiting a reformatory near that city when she observed among the inmates an old acquaintance, a negro lad long thought to be a model of integrity.

"Jim!" exclaimed the mission worker. "Is it possible I find you here?" "Yesum," blithely responded the huckster. "It's charged with stallion's barrel of sweet porters."

The visitor sighed. "You, Jim!" she repeated. "I am surprised!" "Yesum," said Jim. "So was I or I wouldn't be here!"—Zephinocott's.

Good Deeds. Remember that if the opportunities for great deeds should never come, the opportunity for good deeds is renewed day by day. The thing for us to long for is the goodness, not the glory.—F. W. Faber.

Game He Didn't Like. Years ago a bill entitled "An act for the preservation of the heath hen and other game" was introduced into the New York house of assembly.

The speaker of the house, who was not especially interested in matters of this kind, gravely read it: "An act for the preservation of the heathen and other game."

He was blissfully unconscious of his blunder until an honest member from the northern part of the state who had suffered from the depredations of the frontier Indians rose to his feet.

In the blacksmith's shop congratulated him on winning such a hardworking and forehanded mate. But Erasmus Coke remarked:

"Peared lak you wouldn't never speak up, Bonaparte. It's gold' on six months sease you begun to fiddle round' idly."

"That's so," Bonaparte frankly admitted. "But I didn't lose mah job till his' night."

His Second Thought. Goose Egg Cove is on the New Jersey side of Delaware bay. The farmers from miles around take their families to the cove in the summer for a picnic.

Last summer among the crowd was one Camden county man who had drunk too much Salem county apple-jack. He made himself obnoxious by going to the room as they were with their women folk and whispering his fat under their noses, saying: "I can lick you. Come out and fight." No one would fight, because he was evidently drunk.

Convinced that he had scared them all, he wandered up and down the beach, saying, "I can lick any one on the beach." He repeated this to every one he met.

Finally an inoffensive little family man standing with a group jumped into him and bent him into submission. When he was finally allowed to get up the Camden man struggled to his feet and, looking around at the crowd which had gathered, said defiantly: "We and this little fellow can lick any man on the beach!"

Persistence. But little is accomplished because but little is vigorously attempted, and but little is attempted because difficulties are magnified. A humorously cautious spirit, so far from aiding with resolution, will never think itself in possession of the preliminary for acting at all. Perhaps persistence has been the radical principle of every truly great character.—John Foster.

His Age. There was once a man who was asked his age.

"I am two years old," he replied. "Two years old?" his interrogator returned. "Why that is preposterous! You look old enough to have voted for several presidents!"

"You didn't ask me how old I looked," the man retorted. "That you are more than two years old," the other asserted.

"Oh, perhaps I am," said the man, "but you are counting from the date of my birth. Now, I am not. Two years ago I took a new lease of life, and I reckon from that time."

Didn't Like Waste. Saunders Curlye was an old Scot who was very thrifty, abhorred waste, and loved his drop of whisky. He was drunk off his whisky to the last drop the very instant it was poured.

Setting Spurgeon Right. Mr. Spitzgum, the great English preacher, used to tell this story upon himself with glee: On one occasion he found himself in a railway carriage ed out for him. "Why do you drink down your liquor to that quick, greedy way?" a stranger said to Saunders in a reproachful tone. "I once had one knocked over," the old man explained.

What the Hammer Was For. A gunner of the British garrison artillery who had successfully passed the blacksmith's course was at home on furlough, wearing the hammer and pliers on his arm, when he was accosted by a civilian who asked what the decoration was for.

"Oh," replied Tommy facetiously, "I'm an army dentist."

"I see," said the civilian. "Of course the pliers are for extracting the teeth, but what is the idea of the hammer?"

"Well, you see, some of the chaps are a bit nervous, so we use the hammer to chloroform them with," was the reply.

NICELY TRIMMED. The Way Keene Got Square With the Railroad Officials. James R. Keene was nicely trimmed once. He told the story himself:

"I used to live out in the country and rode to and from New York every day on a little jerkwater road. One day, when I forgot my ticket, the conductor, whom I knew well enough to call by his first name, refused to accept my money when I tried to pay my fare. He dropped me off the train into six inches of the thickest stickiest mud in the world. By the time I got to a road where I could halt a wagon I was mud to my knees."

"I was roaring, raving, frantic mad. When I got to New York my first call was on the officials of the road. I wanted that conductor fired. I had to interview every cursed little petty official of the road before I got to the president. Every one of them insulted me to the most ludicrous way. When I got to the president I was a howling, dripping man. He listened to me for a moment and told his secretary to throw that rascal downstairs."

"And the secretary would have done it, too, if I hadn't beat him to the door. As soon as I could get to my broker I told him to buy the controlling interest in that road. It took me a week to get it, and I had to climb high for some of the stock. Then I throw out every official that had scorned me. I was just beginning to get back into my usual placid state of mind when one day I saw a familiar face at the track. It was the conductor who had thrown me off. He waved to me blandly. 'Just bought a little place out this way,' he said. 'You know, that stock you bought belonged to us. The X, M and Z was a close corporation, and we got you mud on purpose. We stung you good!'"

Humor of the Stump. During a warm political campaign an "old timer" took the stump. Whether he gathered many lost sheep into the fold of his party or not, he certainly did not detract from the humor of the situation. On one occasion a crowd of people gathered to hear him speak.

"Fellow citizens," he roared, "our opponents are resorting to every form of villainous to dishonest and underhand tricks, to inconceivable meanness, to the corruption of voters, but we warn them! His thunder shook the roof—"we warn them, fellow citizens, that that is a game that two can play at!"

FAULTLESS PRESCRIPTION

No Remedy for Stomach Distress and Indigestion so Perfect.

A scientific prescription for dyspepsia put up in small tablet form and called Mi-o-na is making thousands of quick and lasting cures throughout America.

There is no stomach disease (even catarrh of the stomach) that it is not guaranteed to cure, and A. A. Clarke has so much faith in Mi-o-na for stomach disorders of all kinds that he will refund your money if it does not cure.

Altogether, the faultless prescription, stops sour stomach, belching of gas, distress after eating, heartburn, biliousness and nervousness.

It is well worth a trial by any reader of The Courier who suffers from any stomach disturbance. It contains ingredients that not only give relief but that act on the stomach so beneficially that in a short time the flabby tired walls of the stomach regain their strength and activity.

Try Mi-o-na for a week; misery will change to happiness; despair to hope, dull eyes to bright and you will yourself wonder why you suffered so long with such a remarkable prescription at hand.

And only 50 cents for a large box at leading druggists everywhere.

with a rather sour looking spinster, with whom he entered into conversation. She did not appear to recognize him, and as the train passed Kelyedon he pointed out the village, remarking, "A very great man was born there—Mr. Spurgeon, the preacher."

The spinster looked hard at him for some moments and then replied with a awful solemnity, "If St. Paul had been passing his birthplace he would have said, 'A very great sinner was born there,' Mr. Spurgeon!"

Two Hundred Suits of Boys' Clothing at Exactly Half Price

Splendidly Made, Excellent Fabrics, Shapely Models, The reason they are Half Price is that the trousers are straight cut instead of bloomer.

BUT faddish clothes are not necessary to "vacation day" needs. Good serviceable clothing is the main thing and that is what this sale affords. Every thread of it wool. The best of linings and inter-linings, tailored in a faultless manner, sewed together with strong thread, doubly reinforced where the most of wear is given them. Every suit is absolutely perfect in every way, not a thing wrong with them except that the pants are straight cut. We bought these suits and the bloomer suits at one and the same time. No one in the country could foretell the strong tendency toward the bloomer styles. We bought bloomers and straight cuts in about equal numbers, the bloomers have sold, the straight cut stayed, but they'll go in a jiffy at Half Price.

Good Strong Vacation Suits---Two for the Price of One.

THE ages range from 7 years to 17 years, there are various models to choose from as the sale includes every single one of our Boys' Suits (having straight trousers.) Over two hundred of them in all, and when everything is said the straight cut pants are more serviceable for vacation needs than Knickerbockers; they fit closely and are not nearly so apt to catch and tear as are the loose-fitting bloomer styles; fabrics, too, are harder and tougher, for in the Knickerbocker styles fabrics must be of soft finish to give to the garment the desired effect of fullness and drape. Everything favors the buying of one or more of these suits. You can obtain two suits at the price of one. They are made from the newest and best of fabrics and they are pre-eminently, vacation suits. They'll be on sale Friday and until they are gone. The regular prices of these suits were from $3 to $10.

Take this sale, sift it down point by point and you'll know it is the best bargain in boys' clothing you've ever seen. The number of suits involved, the quality, the newness, and every one to be sold under a half price ticket. Our entire stock of straight knee pants suits at Half Price. It's a mighty bargain event.

The Sale Begins Friday, June 11th

The Clothing Will Be Found Spread Along the Main Aisle and in Clothing Department. It Ought to Go in a Few Days.

The regular price range was from $3 to $10, and the ages are from seven years to seventeen years. The fabrics are the very newest. The prices are exactly half in every instance, not one single suit (with straight cut pants) reserved. Over 200 suits to choose from and every one of them spic, span new.

TEAM HITS WELL; FIELDS GOOD, TOO.

Cokers Hitting .249 in 30 Games According to Unofficial Figures.

YOEDT THE BEST TWIRLER

But the Other Star Artists Are Going Along at Good Gait Now—Two Men Bat Over .300 And But One Regular Under the .200 Mark.

By G. S. Connell, Official Scorer. Unofficial averages for the first 30 games played by the Cokers this season, which include the first game against Charleroi on Tuesday, show the team hitting and fielding well, but doing a shade better with the stick than in the field. The club figures are .249 at bat and .219 in the field. The average of the team at bat is exceptionally good and the boys are showing steady improvement in this department.

Two players are hitting over .300, one of them a regular. Chief Sweeney, in the role of pinch hitter, is batting .384, against .315 for Dutch Myers, the next man on the list. Kid Hagan, who broke into the game regularly about two weeks ago, is smashing them out at a .291 clip. The greatest improvement, however, was noticed in Fralley, who has come up from around .208 to .275 in the last 10 games. Ike Francis has also improved and is now batting .211 and getting stronger every game. Tiffany and Chlp Francis are just ahead of him. Tiffany was tied with Chlp Francis 10 games ago, both batting .261. Tiffany is hitting .352 now and Chlp .215.

Gilligan's hitting has not been heavy out it is timely. He is batting .212, which is an improvement over his work 10 games ago. Calhoun is the lowest regular slugger on the list, batting .192 in 15 games.

Tiffany leads the regulars in the field but all of them are doing well. Gilligan whose average is not as high as some of the others, is handling more chances than any man in the infield. I Francis is just above him in the average. Hagan is a low man because his physical condition has proven a handicap.

For total bases on their bingles, Myers leads with 46. Chlp Francis is second and Ike Francis third. Tiffany, Gilligan and Fralley have also been swatting the ball for extra bases. Gilligan leads both in sacrifice hitting and stolen bases. Fralley comes next in pilfering the pillows. Myers, Calhoun and Tiffany close behind. The Francis family shines in the sacrifice department.

Among the pitchers, Johnny Yoedt is leading with three games won and none lost. Jack Cotter, who got a bad start, is next with five wins and three losses. Elmer Cannon has an even break while Sileox lost three and won four. Owing to the incomplete reports of out of town games, the pitchers' records are not accurate. Cotter is the best whiffer while Cannon has given the greatest number of bases on balls. The averages follow:

RAIN STOPS GAME IN SECOND INNING.

Cokers Were a Run to the Good When the Deluge Came Upon Them.

NEXT GAME HERE IS MONDAY

Cokers Have Series With Charub in Magic City For the Balance of This Week—Five Games at Home Next Week With Uniontown on Saturday.

Charleroi	11	13	.452

J. Pluvius brought yesterday's game to a sudden end in the second inning and after waiting until the deluge ceased, umpire Weddige gazed upon the sea of mud and water and declared the contest off. There was no chance to continue play as the diamond was inundated.

Black clouds banked the sky to the south and west and it was almost dark when play was called at 3:25. The wind began to blow with great velocity, too, and soon brought with it a terrible shower. There was nothing doing after that.

Johnny Yoedt was pitching for the Cokers and had the best of it. Manager MacHale essayed to stem the tide of defeat which almost demolished the Cherub craft but he was both wild and ineffective. A two-bagger by Gilligan, which bounded over Morgan's head, was followed by Hagan's sacrifice and a single by Ike Francis. Gilligan scored the only run of the game. Charleroi opened up when Morgan landed on a curve for two bases. He took third on a sacrifice but neither Nalley nor Elliot could bring him home. Neither team had a look-in in the second inning, when the game ended.

The Cokers left for Charleroi this morning where they have games the rest of the week. A doubleheader will likely be played during the trip as Sweeney's crew has a postponed game in the Magic City. As the Cokers have won seven out of the last eight games they should be good for a shade better than an even break with the Charub.

Lots of baseball next week if the weather will permit. Grafton comes here for games on Monday and Tuesday while Charleroi returns Wednesday and Thursday. On Friday the Cokers will go to Uniontown for a single game, returning here Saturday for a clash with McCloskey. The schedule is not a hard one and should enable the Cokers to clinch second place. Grafton is dangerous and will prove more formidable than upon its initial appearance here. Week after next will be the hard week as six games in a row are to be played against Uniontown three here the first of the week and three there the latter half.

O'BRIEN WHIPPED.

Referee Saves Him From Knockout By Stanley Ketchell.

Philadelphia, June 10.—Stanley Ketchell, the middleweight champion, defeated Jack O'Brien in the third round, thus accomplishing a feat that Jack Johnson, the heavyweight champion, failed to achieve in six rounds some three weeks ago. The fight was stopped in the second minute of the third round after O'Brien had been knocked down twice in the second and once in the third and was almost unable to raise his hands to defend himself.

Ketchell said after the fight: "I was confident that I could get O'Brien in less than six rounds. I am satisfied with my showing."

O'Brien felt his defeat sorely, but was quick to give Ketchell full credit for his victory.

RELEASED WRONG MAN

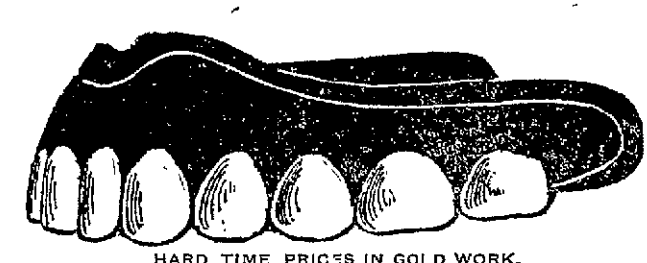

Sheriff Does Not Know If Until Wife of Man Makes Inquiry.

Butler, Pa., June 10.—For impersonating another prisoner and escaping from the county jail Saturday John Borne of Hilliard, charged with shooting with intent to kill a Bersemer and Lake Erie railroad conductor, was charged with jail breaking by Sheriff John B. Caldwell before Justice Lytle. Borne walked out when it was intended to liberate another prisoner. The sheriff did not discover another man had got out until the wife of the prisoner supposed to be released appeared to find out what was wrong. Borne was recaptured at the Hilliard mines.

Why I Advertise

I believe that seven-tenths of all headaches have their origin in strained vision. I also know that correctly-fitted glasses will entirely relieve the headache by removing the cause. Scarcely a day passes, but I relieve some sufferer through my knowledge of making and fitting glasses. I am anxious that all sufferers should know there is a remedy so simple; this is one reason why I advertise.

Monument to Confederate Dead.

Washington, June 10.—A monument of marble or granite to cost about $8,500 is to be erected by the United States government in the Confederate section of Fins Point national cemetery at Salem, N. J., to mark the resting place of 2,460 officers and men of the Confederate army and navy who died as prisoners of war at Fort Delaware between 1862 and 1865.

Famous Financier Dead.

Chicago, June 10.—Lazarus Silverman, a pioneer financier of Chicago, credited with originating the plan for the resumption of specie payments in 1873, known as the Sherman bill, is dead at his home here, age seventy-nine.
